

The fourteenth magazine of the TV series “Step by Step”

The topic of the fourteenth magazine of the series “Step by Step” is the new models that stimulate the employment of youth and socially endangered groups.

The first story comes from Valjevo

After three years of job hunting, Tatjana Mirkovic has started to work at the company where she also sees her opportunity to move forward. Tatjana has learnt to how see her real potential and to present it to the employer at the local job search club, whose number in Serbia has been increasing lately.

The second story is from Belgrade

Every bag, folder or wallet, made by the company “Eco BaG”, is a unique item. However, their originality lies also in the fact that they are made out of used billboards and placates. “Eco BaG” is one of the first social companies in Serbia that has not been profit-oriented but rather established with the aim to solve the problem of groups that have difficulties in finding employment.

The third story is from Loznica

“It is wrong to have a piece of land in the country and not to work there”, says Milorad Aleksic from the village Jelava, who is cultivating 10 hectares of family land. He has acquired new knowledge about the modern industry at the lectures organized by the youth office in local community.
